

DECLARATION ON HONOUR CONCERNING WORKS TO BE TRANSLATED***

To be completed by the person legally authorised to sign on behalf of the applicant organisation

I, the undersigned, certify that

- > The works proposed for translation have been previously published;
- > The works proposed for translation have not been previously translated into the target language (except where a new translation corresponds to a clearly assessed need);
- > The works proposed for translation have been written by authors who are nationals of or residents in a country taking part in the Culture Sub-programme (with the exception of works written in Latin and ancient Greek);
- > The target language is the translator's mother tongue (except in cases of lesser used languages if the publisher provides sufficient explanation);
- > The applicant commits itself to use the translator(s) mentioned in the application;
- > The applicant has undertaken the necessary steps to ensure that it will obtain the rights to the literary work(s) proposed for translation, and that it will be able to counter sign the formal agreement on the rights and provide them to the Executive Agency within two 3 months of notification of the award decision.
